We made it through another year together. Although Thanksgiving is past, I do want to be sure to take a moment to say how incredibly grateful WITF is to have you as a supporter. WITF is not possible without your contribution. As we begin this month, we'll be wrapping up our end of year fundraising campaign. We have four campaigns a year on television. Funds raised during these crucial fundraisers support the programs you look forward to finding in this guide and on television. Shows like: NOVA, Nature, MASTERPIECE, Antiques Roadshow and syndicated series like Doctor Blake Mysteries, Doc Martin, A Place to Call Home and so much more. It's all made possible by you, thank you! From all of us at WITF, we are grateful for your support.

I've heard from so many viewers about how much they love A Place to Call Home. Last month, I attended an event for our radio station. Normally I hear about what a listener likes or doesn't like on the radio station, but instead I heard accolades for A Place to Call Home. In mid-November we hit the end of season 2 of A Place to Call Home. There are three more seasons of the program. I hope to license additional seasons in 2019. Since this program is syndicated, it must be purchased per season in certain offer windows from the program's distributor. We're currently outside of these windows, but I will keep my eye on it so I can jump on the next season as soon as it becomes available.

A few days after the anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor, we'll present a new documentary on U.S. Navy sailor Joe George. He became an unlikely hero when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor in Hawaii on December 7, 1941. He was recognized with a Bronze Medal for his actions more than 70 years later. Lifeline: Pearl Harbor's Unknown Hero, will broadcast December 10 following Antiques Roadshow at 9pm.

On December 19 meet the Wild Ponies of the Chincoteague at 10pm. If you've ever visited Assateague Island on vacation in Virginia, perhaps you've seen one! The documentary visits the annual Chincoteague wild pony swim and auction and highlights one teenager's journey to buy her first foal.

Coverage of the opioid epidemic in the state continues this month. Battling Opioids: A Project of Pennsylvania Public Media rebroadcasts December 20 at 8pm with a new round-table discussion.

Don't miss the premiere of a fun little documentary from the BBC, Reindeer Family & Me on December 23 at 8pm. In this adventure, we travel by reindeer into the wilderness of Lapland, Finland to see nature's greatest spectacle – the Northern Lights for the enchanting natural light show. ■

Look for Fred Vigeant's PICKS throughout the guide! PICK

WITF 89.5 & 93.3 CENTER STAGE SUNDAYS at 8pm

A WITF Original Production brings local live Classical music right to your living room!

- DEC 2 Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra, Wagner, Higdon and Tchaikovsky
- DEC 9 Lancaster Symphony Orchestra, Dvorak's New World
- DEC 16 American Composers Choral Festival, 2018
- DEC 23 Music Box Christmas Special
- DEC 30 Gretna Music, Hilary Hahn

WITF is ending production of our weekly concert series Centerstage at the end of this month. We've made this change to shift staff resources to monthly arts and culture reporting. These features will be broadcast during Morning Edition and Here and Now. After WITF's transition to an all-news format in 2012, Centerstage remained in our weekly schedule so listeners could continue to explore a variety of regional symphony orchestras and other performing arts. Since then, many listeners interested in classical music have moved on to other sources to satisfy their interests. Other sources provide more consistent offerings of this genre of music. We thank the loyal audience for Centerstage. We appreciate that you made the time to enjoy the performances from premiere organizations in our region. Centerstage continues with regular weekly broadcasts through December 30. ■
