Thank you for watching WITF. Thank you for supporting WITF. I cannot say either statement often enough, especially through these challenging times.

WITF serves many roles in the community. In the spring as the pandemic unfolded in our region, WITF rose to the challenge to assist area school districts with additional hours of programming in conjunction with their curriculum for distance learning. We keep you informed with national and international news through reporting from PBS NewsHour and BBC World News. And for your mental escape, we continue to provide familiar faces in comedy, drama, and mystery. As we start this month, we hope you consider contributing to WITF to support all these efforts with our annual June membership campaign. WITF comes to you four times a year on television to ask you to invest in the programs you rely on. WITF will continue to be here for you, and we hope you will be there for us. Thank you!

We have a variety of new series coming to the schedule this month. Since January, we have been building up to the premiere of season 9 of Death in Paradise. By now DI Jack Mooney has settled into life on the glorious Caribbean island of Saint Marie, but the murders keep coming. And they are more baffling than ever. As we begin the brand-new season on June 11, we will see a romantic encounter prompts some soul-searching for Jack. What happens this season? Find out on Death in Paradise at a new time at 8:30pm Thursdays.

Beginning Sunday June 14, stay tuned for non-stop drama and intrigue. We have lined up several new and returning titles Sundays through the summer. We kick off with our continuing replay of Last Tango in Halifax at 7pm. The series continues all summer long and into the fall. Solve mysterious murders on Doctor Blake Mysteries with season 2 at 8pm. Will Davenport settles into his role as the vicar of Grantchester on Masterpiece season 5 at 9pm. We welcome Beecham House on Masterpiece at 10pm. We conclude the evening with a Swedish thriller Before We Die at 11pm. Police detective Hanna Svensson steps in to handle a mysterious informant in a criminal organization when her colleague and lover, Sven, goes missing.

Let us go digging for fossils in the upper mid-west in a new series. We will take a summer road trip through America’s dinosaur country on a search for mysterious creatures and bizarre ecosystems that have shaped Earth on Prehistoric Road Trip Wednesdays at 10pm beginning June 17.

This month we rebroadcast a popular Ken Burns series. A replay of National Parks: America’s Best Idea comes your way Thursdays at 9:30pm beginning June 11. Then, we’ll spend most of the weekend June 27 and 28 with Country Music; beginning at 10am Saturday and Sunday at 9am.

We have made it through another month. Thanks for watching WITF! Stay safe, stay healthy and stay tuned!

Radio Note:

We expect some changes to the WITF 89.5 & 93.3 schedule in July. We’ll publish the new radio grid and alert you to the modifications in the next issue. After that, we plan to not publish the radio schedule in this guide until more new programs are added. We think you’ll enjoy the added space it provides to detail television program highlights. Accordingly, if you depend on the radio schedule, please clip it next month to keep it handy. Or, it is always available at witf.org/schedules.

Many Women Prefer Having a Female Doctor

Medical studies confirm that many women are more comfortable discussing their digestive issues one-on-one with a female healthcare provider. Because of the potential embarrassment of talking about personal health with a male doctor, some women will delay treatment or even forgo colonoscopy screenings.

To meet the unique needs of women, PA GI’s staff includes two board-certified female gastroenterologists and two certified female physician assistants.
