As 2020 draws to a close, I thank you for being a viewer and on-going supporter of WITF. Your financial investment in WITF is the essential engine that keeps the programming you find in this month’s guide possible. December brings our fourth and final fundraiser of the year. If you haven’t made a donation to WITF recently, now is a great time to show your appreciation for programs like Antiques Roadshow, dramas like the The Trouble with Maggie Cole, and mysteries like Endeavour on MASTERPIECE. Please call 1-800-233-9483 to make your contribution or to renew your gift today.

This month we’ll encore the popular Sanditon on MASTERPIECE with two mini-marathons. If you can believe it (or remember) Sanditon premiered back in January. Although a fan favorite, I regret that we only have one season of the drama with no current plans for additional seasons. Let’s all cross our fingers for more to come. All eight episodes of the series will run over two Sundays, December 20 and 27, beginning at 8:00pm. Taking a quick glimpse ahead to January, MASTERPIECE will feature a remake of the classic All Creatures Great and Small. Check back next month for more highlights about what to watch on MASTERPIECE in 2021.

Join us on December 10 at 7:00pm for Family Night: Coding. This hour-long special will encourage children, in kindergarten through fifth grade, and their families to get excited about computer science together. You can catch a repeat of this special on December 17 at 8:30pm following the premiere of the 2020 Teacher Impact Awards.

What goes on at City Hall? A new, immersive, four and a half-hour documentary shows how Boston’s City Hall can enter into civil discourse with its citizens. City government touches almost every aspect of our lives. From police and sanitation to marriage certificates and elder support, most of us are unaware of, or take for granted, the breadth of services that support residents and visitors. City Hall demonstrates a city government successfully serving a diverse population, and how its administration addresses policy priorities such as racial justice, affordable housing, climate action, and homelessness. City Hall premieres December 22 at 8:00pm.

Since October we have been featuring the quirky British comedy Miranda. The series comes to an end with a mini marathon on December 26. In January we welcome the Vicar of Dibley to join Keeping Up Appearances in our Britcom block Saturdays at 8:00pm. As noted last month, stay tuned for Last of the Summer Wine to join the schedule later in 2021.

Thanks for watch WITF in 2020. I’m so glad you welcome us into your living room throughout the year. We’re looking forward to bringing you more engaging, entertaining and enlightening programs in 2021. Best wishes this holiday season!
