

Dr. Mary E. Kelleher
Chief Medical Officer, Berks Community Health Center

BCHC's Chief Medical Officer, Dr. Mary Kelleher has dedicated her professional life to community health. She received her undergraduate degree from Cornell University. After simultaneously completing her MD and Masters of Public Health from Columbia University, she completed her residency in family medicine at the University of Maryland. From there, she joined the Southeast Baltimore Community Health Center and was in the National Health Service Corps. In 2004, she joined the physician staff of the Reading Health Dispensary a site dedicated to taking care of the underserved in the City of Reading PA . Dr. Kelleher was appointed Chief Medical Officer of Berks Community Health Center when the health center opened in June, 2012.