

Dr. Jacqueline Wilson
ICEO, Trac Services for Families

Dr. Jacqueline Wilson has been the Chief Executive Officer of TRAC Services for Families (TRAC) since 2000. In this position, Dr. Wilson heads one of the largest full service adoption & foster care agencies in Western Pennsylvania and one of only a handful that recruits for both public and private child welfare agencies. Prior to joining TRAC, Dr. Wilson was Foster Care Director for Family Services of Western Pennsylvania.

Dr. Wilson currently serves as President of the Board of Directors of the Adoption Exchange Association, which holds the national Adopt US Kids grant. Dr. Wilson also sits on the Board of Voice for Adoption and served as its secretary for three years. She is a member of the University Of Pittsburgh School Of Social Work Advisory Board, as well as the University of Pittsburgh Baker Fellowship Advisory Committee. She has been an adjunct professor At the University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work. Additionally, Dr. Wilson is also a founding member of the African American Strategic Partnership. She sits on the Board of the Beltzhoover Consensus Group.

Dr. Wilson was previously appointed to the Pennsylvania State Wide Adoption and Permanency Network Advisory Board. She is a past Board member of the Shona Shariff African Dance and Drum Ensemble as well as My Brothers Keeper, a community re-entry program for individuals who have been involved in the criminal justice system because of their drug and alcohol related addictions.

Accomplishments include being honored as one of the 2005 Angels in Adoption by Congressman Mike Doyle, being named as one of Pittsburgh's 50 Women of Influence in 2004 and one of the 50 Women of Excellence in 2011 by the New Pittsburgh Courier.

Dr. Wilson is a member of Mt. Ararat Baptist Church. She is married and the mother of 2 children.

Dr. Wilson holds a BASW and an MSW from the University of Pittsburgh, and a Ph.D. from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in Administration and Leadership Studies.