

Amanda Carter

Site Director, GLO Harrisburg, LGBT Center of Central PA

Amanda Carter, (Carter) is an employee of the LGBT Center of Central PA where she coordinates the Queer & Trans People of Color Advisory Group, (QTPOC) and serves as the Site Director for GLO Harrisburg. At GLO, Carter worked alongside partner agencies in the development and implementation of GLO and now co-facilitates Youth Advisory Board meetings, develops and manages programming and provides direct supervision to GLO staff.

Carter is a Howard University graduate who earned her Juris Doctor from The George Washington University Law School in 2010. Since returning to her hometown, she has worked as an educator in the Harrisburg and Steelton-Highspire school districts; served as a commissioner for the newly reinstated Harrisburg Human Rights Commission and founded City Art Space, a nonprofit organization committed to providing quality, engaging after-school programming for Harrisburg City youth.