

Elijah Dourado

Student, Youth Executive of Dauphin County

Elijah Dourado is an eleventh-grade honors student at Laurel Springs School. He lives internationally half of the year in Doha, Qatar, and the other half in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Among his many activities, he serves as a Student Ambassador and is a member of the National Honor Society. He is a member of the Tobacco Resistance Unit (TRU) and the Dauphin County Youth Leadership and Executive Committees. He was involved with creating activities that assisted youth in developing their critical thinking skills and effective decision-making.

He is an avid traveler who enjoys experiencing other cultures and has participated in an international service trip to Laos. Elijah is interested in studying political science and cybersecurity. He plans on attending university and continuing to serve his community.
