HIGHLIGHTS

We have something special in store this month. The reboot of All Creatures Great and Small was a hit to start the year in 2020. It’s back for a second season on MASTERPIECE; you don’t want to miss the premiere on January 9. Speaking of reboots, we have a new adaptation of Around the World in 80 Days which takes off January 2 on MASTERPIECE. David Tennant takes the lead role of Phileas Fogg who is accompanied on his trip by Passepartout portrayed by Ibrahim Koma and Abigail Fortescue depicted by Leonie Benesch. You won’t want to miss out on this back-to-back drama with Around the World in 80 Days at 8pm and All Creatures Great and Small at 9pm. Of course, if you do happen to miss out on a given week, be sure to fire up your PBS Video app and activate your WITF Passport account to watch any episode on-demand.

Antiques Roadshow launches its 26th season this month. Three episodes from Connecticut start the season at the Wadsworth Museum. We’ll find out the value of a 1904 Gandhi handwritten letter among many other artifacts presented to the experts. Watch every Monday night at 8pm for the new episodes with occasional encores from past seasons showing up at 9pm.

Discover the legendary choreographer Alvin Ailey whose dances center on the Black American experience with grace, strength and beauty on a brand-new episode of American Masters this month. The documentary includes audio interviews with Ailey, interviews with those close to him and an intimate glimpse into the Ailey studios today. Find out more about the choreographer January 11 at 9pm.

We have a lot of new seasons and new shows coming to WITF TV this year. As you can imagine, production delays due to the pandemic caused many changes to our planned schedule over the past 18 months. We’re still seeing reverberations, but I’m happy to say that many titles are coming back in 2022. It’s going to be a busy year, full of some fantastic programs. I’m excited to share it with you; we’re just getting started!

For Three Generations We’ve Been Here

Over the past 50 years of serving our community, we’ve grown and changed to meet the needs of the families we serve. But the one thing that we haven’t changed is our family tradition of caring. You can count on us to help you honor the lives of your loved ones.
