Happy New Year! We have lots of new programming to kick off 2023. We begin by going live to London for London’s New Year’s Day Parade – which is back to its usual structure for the first time since the beginning of the pandemic. Be on the lookout for a local marching band — the Lebanon Valley College Pride of the Valley is expected to perform in this year’s event!

We have a strong Sunday line-up this month. At 6pm, we’ll begin a replay of Grantchester starting with its very first season. This series has been a part of MASTERPIECE Mystery since 2015. We’ll march through a replay of this series throughout 2023 with an eighth season expected to premiere later this year. Grantchester is followed by Death in Paradise at 7pm, which has become another staple in our schedule. We expect a new season of Death in Paradise to arrive on WITF TV in late spring or summer.

Then, Sundays at 8pm, we’ll get to the new stuff. It feels like we just wrapped up season 2 of Miss Scarlet and The Duke. The second season concluded in November, yet the show is already back with a new, third season beginning January 8.

Also in its third season, All Creatures Great and Small returns Sundays at 9pm. We head back to the fictional village of Darrowby for more drama and more animal care with the adaptation of James Herriot’s book series by the same name.

Another series in its third season, Vienna Blood, premieres the same night at 10pm, following Miss Scarlet and The Duke and All Creatures Great and Small. Dr. Max Liebermann and DI Oscar Rheinhart team up again to solve mysteries in 1900s Vienna.

Finally, Sunday nights wrap up at 11pm with Astrid, a French language mystery. Astrid Nielsen works in the library of the judicial police. She has Asperger’s syndrome. With her incredible memory, she excels at analyzing files of ongoing investigations. The district commander uses her talent to the fullest, entrusting her with very complex investigations which have remained unsolved to date.

The ninth season of Finding Your Roots kicks off January 3. Host Henry Louis Gates, Jr. explores hidden connections in history. In this season, we’ll learn about the ancestry of Edward Norton and Julia Roberts, Carol Burnett and Niecy Nash, Brian Cox and Viola Davis, and many others. Be sure to check out Finding Your Roots every Tuesday this winter at 8pm.

Nature continues new episodes beginning on January 18 at 8pm. In Wildheart, we’ll head to the highlands of Scotland to appreciate the Scots Pine tree which is at the heart of a magnificent ecosystem. It is home to hundreds of life forms, from the iconic golden eagle to the rare capercaillie and the feisty red squirrel. The following week, we’ll examine the Soul of the Ocean, taking a never-before-seen look at how life underwater co-exists in a marriage of necessity.

We’ll be adding an old favorite to our British comedy mix on Saturday nights. Look for Rowan Atkinson’s madcap and quirky creation, Mr. Bean. The newly remastered series originally ran in the 1990s. Mr. Bean joins Are You Being Served, Last of the Summer Wine and Upstart Crow to keep you laughing through these cold winter nights starting at 6pm.

Thanks for watching WITF TV and for your on-going support of public media in South Central Pennsylvania. Be sure to stay tuned!

For Three Generations We’ve Been Here

Over the past 50 years of serving our community, we’ve grown and changed to meet the needs of the families we serve. But the one thing that we haven’t changed is our family tradition of caring. You can count on us to help you honor the lives of your loved ones.
