

HIGHLIGHTS

FRED VIGEANT
Vice President &
Chief Audience Officer

Before we jump into this month's highlights, I want to share some great news about an upcoming trip. WITF is heading back to England in August! I hope you'll join me on this trip across the pond for "The Great British Telly Tour," featuring behind-the-scenes experiences from your favorite PBS programs. We'll visit Downton Abbey's Highclere Castle, see Poldark's Chavenage House and explore picturesque villages used in The Vicar of Dibley, Mr. Selfridge and The Bletchley Circle. Visit our website and click on events to see more details about the trip. Tickets for this trip are moving fast, so be sure to sign up today.

Although the season kicked off at the tail end of March, it's worth spending a little more time talking about Call the Midwife. Season 14 brings us to 1970, marking a new decade in Poplar. (You may recall that the first season began in the 1950s.) This season, the Nonnatus House will continue to tackle social challenges like poor housing, poverty and various health issues – including a puzzling case of apparent immaculate conception. Call the Midwife airs Sundays at 8pm, followed by new episodes of Wolf Hall: The Mirror and the Light at 9pm and Marie Antoinette at 10pm.

Learn all about funk music from Emmy Award-winning filmmaker and MacArthur Fellow, Stanley Nelson. Independent Lens: We Want the Funk takes us on a voyage through the history of the genre, spanning from its African, soul and early jazz roots to its rise into the public consciousness. Catch this special, two-hour documentary on Tuesday, April 8 at 9pm.

Periodically, we've included documentaries and travel shows featuring British actor

NEW ★ April 8 at 9p

Michael Palin. He is back this month with Michael Palin in North Korea. In this two-part series, beginning April 7, Michael starts his journey by visiting Pyongyang, the capital of North Korea. He also visits the Korean Demilitarized Zone and the Revolutionary Museum on Mount Paektu. Both episodes air Mondays at 9pm following new episodes of Antiques Roadshow.

An encore broadcast of Ken Burns' The Vietnam War continues this month into May. This 18-hour documentary series, which premiered on WITF in 2017, tells the epic and divisive story of the controversial war. The Vietnam War features testimony from nearly 80 witnesses from all sides. The series is repeating Thursday nights at 10:30pm and is available to watch anytime through WITF Passport.

In recognition of Holocaust Remembrance Day later this month, we will feature a handful of new documentaries, including Life After Liberation: Holocaust Survivors in Post-War Germany. Learn how Shoah survivors attempted to rebuild their lives while living in the Displaced Persons Camp in Landsberg am Lech after they were liberated near the southern German town.

Watch this touching documentary on Monday, April 21 at 9pm. Other documentaries scheduled for this remembrance include Return to Auschwitz: The Survival of Vladimir Munk and Resistance: They Fought Back, which all air within a week of Holocaust Remembrance Day on Sunday, April 27.

See The Doo Wop Project at the Luhrs Center!

On May 16, five dynamic Broadway stars perform a harmonic new set list featuring doo-wop classics and "doowopified" hits from contemporary artists! Make your gift of support to WITF and choose your tickets as a thank-you gift at witf.org/ticketinfo.
