

HIGHLIGHTS

FRED VIGEANT
Media and Production

We're rapidly approaching our nation's 250th celebration early next month. Although I'm here to talk about our June schedule, I do want to talk for a moment about the 4th of July because it's going to be a little different than in past years. A Capitol Fourth will broadcast on WITF, as it has for decades, but the live broadcast from Washington D.C. will take place on July 3, airing at 8pm. That's right, Washington D.C. will celebrate America's birthday one day early. Then on Saturday, July 4, we'll feature an Independence Day celebration from Virginia at 8pm. America - Made in Virginia: 250 Years Together will come to you from historic Colonial Williamsburg, the capital city of revolutionary Virginia. I'll have more details on both of these live special presentations in next month's guide, but I wanted to note the difference in scheduling so you can plan appropriately.

Turn: Washington's Spies returns for season two on June 11. The show follows Abe Woodhull and the Culper Ring, a group of childhood friends who risked everything to spy for George Washington during the Revolutionary War. This second season airs Thursdays throughout the summer. The first and second seasons are also available through WITF Passport.

Our summer drama lineup begins June 14 with new seasons of Patience, Grantchester and the triumphant return of Downton Abbey. The second season of Patience, which starts at 8pm, follows criminal archivist Patience Evans as she solves problems in York. Then at 9pm, the 11th and final season of Grantchester premieres. Set in the summer of 1963, the show explores family, forgiveness, faith, and self-reflection—closing the series with a story of self-discovery, hope, and transformation. We'll be capping off Sunday nights this summer with the first few seasons of Downton Abbey, starting with season one at 10 pm. We'll go all the way back to the moment Robert Crawley learns the Titanic has sunk and watch how that changes the fortunes and future of Downton Abbey. The complete seasons of these three dramas will be available to WITF Passport subscribers on June 14 as well.

Let's head Down Under to learn about The Kimberley: Australia's Wild West Wednesdays at 10pm beginning June 17. This region of Australia spans more than 400,000 square kilometers of spectacular tropical wilderness—think turquoise coastlines, towering gorges, sandy deserts, and wide-open savanna. Against the odds of an intense climate and rugged terrain, wildlife thrives here, from river-dwelling crocodiles to marsupial gliders soaring over the plains. Journey through a full year of tropical seasons in a three-part adventure that reveals Australia's hidden wonders.

We'll continue airing best-of episodes of Finding Your Roots Tuesdays at 8pm. At the PBS Annual Meeting, Henry Louis Gates Jr. announced that the series—which explores the family histories of notable figures—will return for its 13th season in early 2027. Stay tuned in the coming months for announcements about next season's guests.

That will do it for this June. We're glad you're here.
