HIGHLIGHTS

FRED VIGEANT
Vice President of Media and Production

PBS News will present special coverage of midterm elections on November 3. Coverage begins at 8pm and continues through (at least) 11:30pm. Special coverage will also be available through our radio service, website and app.

The week of November 16 features a four-part series, Crime and Punishment in America. This series is an exploration of the consequential story of criminal justice in America as it has never been told before — from the colonial era to today. Lynn Novick directs this alongside executive producer Ken Burns. This documentary series sets out to comprehensively explore the arguments Americans have had over the problem of crime, the purpose of punishment, and the meaning of justice for more than 250 years. New episodes broadcast nightly at 8pm with a repeat at 10pm. The series is also found on-demand through Passport.

We have a number of special programs in recognition of Veterans Day in the schedule from November 6 leading up to Veterans Day on November 11. One program I'll highlight is Salute to Service, which broadcasts November 6 at 9pm. Former Philadelphia Eagles player Jason Kelce hosts this year's special with the U.S. Army Field Band. We'll also meet members of the 3rd U.S. Infantry Regiment, or "The Old Guard," an elite unit that has served since 1784. This moving special, honoring all who have served this country, also repeats Sunday night at 11pm after MASTERPIECE.

We continue with season 5 of Brokenwood Mysteries Saturday at 9pm. The New Zealand detective drama has become a mainstay in our schedule lately. Stay tuned for season 6 in December and the premiere of season 7 coming in January. Seasons 3 to 7 are available for on-demand viewing as a benefit of your WITF support with Passport via the PBS app.

Paul Simon: The Quiet Celebration Concert
NEW ★ November 26 at 8p • November 28 at 11a

For 500 years, Mennonites have refused military service. Confronting the limits of religious tolerance in America, they have been forced to reshape their beliefs into something more socially acceptable while maintaining a connection to their religious heritage that emphasizes peace over violence. In doing so, they have made significant contributions to American society. We'll feature a new documentary, Being Mennonite, which explores this culture, Monday, November 23 at 9pm.

Thanksgiving evening, make sure to join us for some delightful music from Paul Simon. Join the legendary singer-songwriter for an unforgettable concert from his Grammy-nominated album "Seven Psalms." This intimate evening also features new arrangements of timeless classics, deep cuts, and new musical discoveries. This taping took place at McCaw Hall in Seattle. The concert begins at 8pm on November 26.

Finally, I want to take a moment to acknowledge you. Thank you. I say this because this is my last column to share with you. Thank you for your ongoing support of WITF and your enthusiasm for the WITF programming that you have enjoyed over the years. My departure comes with mixed emotions. It has been a privilege and an honor to share so many great, insightful, moving, and thought-provoking programs. All these programs are thanks to you. It's your passion and financial support which powers everything you see on WITF. Moving forward, John Kinzer will continue to share new and exciting programs as we wrap up 2026 and head into 2027. Stay tuned for the final season of Miss Scarlet and another season of All Creatures Great and Small among other highlights to come.

Thank you!

Fred

One Less Thing to Worry About

We plan for vacations, weddings, and retirement. Why not plan for this, too? Preplanning your arrangements isn't about dwelling on the end; it's about making things easier for the people who matter most.

Skip the guesswork for your family. By planning your wishes now, you're giving them the space to focus on memories later.

It's a simple conversation that makes a world of difference.
